* Conditions of refund

- For refund purpose, fees will be calculated based on number of teaching weeks (excluding holidays).
- Date of 'refund form' submitted will be considered as a date of notice given to Apei-ro Institute for refund calculation purpose.
- If the application is made at the start, middle or end of a teaching week, that specific week will be considered as teach-out week -For refund calculation, it will be assumed that the candidate has paid full course fees.
- If a candidate/student has only paid partial fees, it may result in - a candidate owes to Apei-ro Institute or Apei-ro Institute owes to a candidate/student. This will be calculated for each individual application.

Student Default occurs when:

- The course starts at the location on the agreed starting day, but the student does not start the course on that day (and has not previously withdrawn); or
- The student withdraws from the course (either before or after the agreed starting day); or
- APEIRO INSTITUTE refuses to provide, or continue providing, the course to the student because of one or more of the following events:
 - The student failed to pay an amount he or she was liable to pay the provider, directly or indirectly, in order to undertake the course;
 - The student breached a condition of his or her student visa as stated by Department of Home Affairs;
 - Breach of Apei-ro Institute's policies as outlined in the student handbook.

Refunds after Apei-ro Institute Default

In the unlikely event of Apei-ro Institute, within 14 days of the default, Apei-ro Institute will:

- Either offer you an alternative place at Apei-ro Institute's expense, that is accepted by you in writing; or
- Refund you the unused portion of the prepaid fees.

If Apei-ro Institute is unable to provide a refund or place you in an alternative course, then the student shall be referred to the Tuition Protection Service (TPS: www.tps.gov.au), who will place you in a suitable alternative course or if a suitable course cannot be found, pay a refund as calculated by the TPS Administrator.
